

NSPCC Number Day – Friday 7th February

Willoughby is taking part in this year's NSPCC Number Day, next Friday 7th February. Number Day is a maths inspired fundraising day for children in nursery right through to secondary school. Pupils are encouraged to Dress up for Digits, by wearing an item of clothing with a number on it. Please send a £1 donation to participate in this fundraising activity. Funds raised from Number Day will help support vital NSPCC services. Thank you for your support and participation.

Music Sessions

On Thursday, Purple, Turquoise and Orange classes had a visit from Greg Shelton who played Brazilian beats on different drums and jazz on his melodica (a hand-held instrument, with a mouthpiece and piano style keyboard). The children responded to the steady beat or the fast and slow rhythms. There were lots of smiles and some movement to the music in Orange class. Pupils in Purple class joined in with clapping, stamping and some percussion of their own. We look forward to more music sessions due to take place in school over the coming weeks.
