Daffodil Class

Daffodil class have been learning about the Christmas story during their sensory story. They have been dressing up, exploring items, and listening to sounds together as they get into the Christmas spirit.

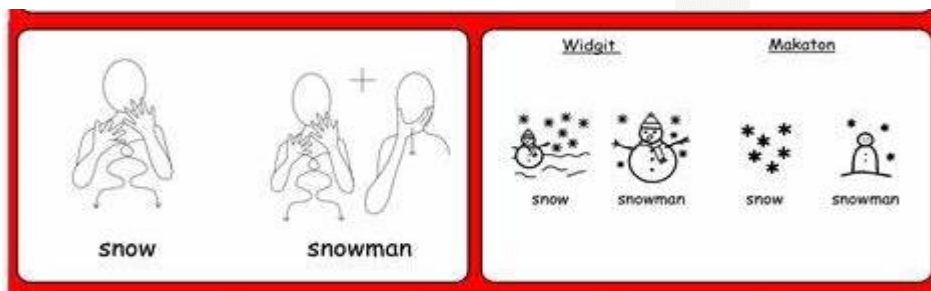

Christmas Cakes

Christmas has begun in the Food room with Snapdragon and Protea making and decorating their Christmas Cakes. The creativity and increased independent skills have been great to see. Lee from Cummins will be coming in during the last week of term to judge them. Well done to all in both classes. Tiger Lily have also been busy making some which will be on sale during the Christmas Show for £3.00 each.

Makaton

Makaton are counting down to Christmas and issuing a new sign each day, 23 sleeps to go. Sign of the day is Snowman.
