

Yellow Class – Grimsthorpe Castle Trip

Yesterday Yellow class went to Grimsthorpe Castle after learning all about castles in their topic. The children looked at the exterior of the castle remembering the names of certain parts of it. They also had the opportunity to go inside the castle, seeing thrones that Kings had sat in, including Henry VIII. The children had a fantastic time and got to spend some time in the adventure playground too.

Friday School Assemblies – Easter Message

We were kindly visited today by Pastor Nik who delivered an Easter message to every pupil in assembly today.

Easter Prize Awards

Many congratulations to Stephen Coote who won the Easter goodie basket for his outstanding contribution as Head Boy. Congratulations also go to Arya and Ajay pupils from Early Years who won Easter eggs for their outstanding progress and achievement.

Cummins Easter Chicks

Two employees from Cummins, Anita and Heulwen arrived into school on Friday morning dressed as chicks to deliver Easter eggs to all pupils. They spent time with James going into each classroom delivering the goodies and spreading Easter cheer. Children were very excited to receive their gift. Thank you Anita and Heulwen for the kind Easter treats.
