Welcome

Welcome back, we hope you've had a restful half term break! We have lots of exciting things planned leading up to the festive period. During this term Cedar class shall continue to keep you informed and share our news and photographs on Tapestry. It is always wonderful to see posts from families and share with the class.

This term our focus is...

The Jungle Book. By Rudyard Kipling

Curriculum

During our communication and PSHE sessions we continue to share our voices and gestures whilst exploring our body and experiencing our body awareness sessions.

Our topic this term is 'Rumble in the jungle' we will engage our senses whilst encountering sensory experiences with our friends and go in search of amazing animals and their habitats. During the session we will experience light sources, encounter animal sounds and textures.

We shall be sharing our focus story 'The Jungle Book' during our sensory story sessions. We will join Mowgli and his friends in their adventures.

During our seasonal sensation sessions, we will encounter aspects of autumn and celebrate all that the season has to offer, including Harvest, Bonfire Night and Christmas.

We will continue to access the trampoline (weather permitting) and take advantage of the fair weather as we explore our natural surroundings during our horticulture sessions.
